21. INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS.

- (a) REQUIRED INSURANCE. Supplier, at its expense, shall obtain and maintain the insurance coverages set forth in Attachment B – Insurance Requirements. All costs for insurance, including any payments of deductible amounts, shall be considered incidental to and included in the prices for goods/services and no additional payment shall be made to Supplier.

- (b) WORKERS COMPENSATION. Supplier shall comply with applicable workers compensation statutes and regulations (e.g., RCW Title 51, Industrial Insurance). If Supplier fails to provide industrial insurance coverage or fails to pay premiums or penalties on behalf of its employees as may be required by law, Purchaser may terminate this Purchase Order. This provision does not waive any of the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) rights to collect from Supplier. If Supplier performs Services on Purchaser's behalf in the State of Washington, and only to the extent of claims against Supplier by Purchaser under the Indemnity obligations in this Purchase Order, Supplier expressly waives any immunity it may be granted under the Washington State Industrial Insurance Act, Title 51 RCW. Supplier's indemnification obligation shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation, or benefits payable to or for any third party under workers' compensation acts, disability benefit acts, or other employee benefit acts. The parties expressly acknowledge and certify that the waiver of immunity under Title 51 RCW was mutually negotiated and agreed upon.
22. FORCE MAJEURE. Except for the obligation to pay amounts when due under this Purchase Order, neither party shall be liable to the other for damages due to a failure to carry out its obligations under this Purchase Order when that failure is in whole or part caused by fire, hurricane, flood, earthquake, lightning, or other natural event or disaster; epidemic, freight embargo; governmental or administrative action or prohibition; riot; strike (other than at the affected party's operations or that of its suppliers); acts of public enemies or terrorists; sabotage; or other events beyond that party's reasonable control (a "force majeure event"). A party whose performance is affected by a force majeure event immediately shall notify the other, describing the event and estimating its duration, and bears the burden of proving that the event qualifies as a force majeure event. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to mitigate the effects of the force majeure event; Provided, however, that, if Supplier is unable to perform in a timely fashion, Purchaser may purchase replacement Goods or obtain substitute Services from another vendor without penalty, and those replacement Goods and substitute Services shall count towards any volume requirements in this Purchase Order. Alternatively, Purchaser may elect to terminate this Purchase Order. Unless Supplier is excused from performing due to a force majeure event, if Purchaser elects to acquire replacement Goods and substitute Services from another supplier because Supplier is unable to timely perform on the agreed schedule, Supplier shall reimburse Purchaser for all commercially reasonable additional costs and expenses incurred to obtain the replacement Goods and substitute Services.
23. TERMINATION; EXPIRATION.
- (a) TERMINATION. This Purchase Order may be terminated: (i) upon the mutual written agreement of the parties; (ii) by the non-breaching party where a breach is not cured within fifteen (15) calendar days after written notice of breach is delivered to the breaching party unless a different time for cure is otherwise stated in this Purchase Order; and (iii) as otherwise expressly provided for in this Purchase Order. This Purchase Order shall terminate automatically and without further action if a party becomes insolvent or is placed in receivership, reorganization, liquidation, or bankruptcy. In addition to any other available remedies, the non-breaching party may terminate this Purchase Order as provided in subsection (ii) above without further liability by written notice to the breaching party. A termination for breach shall not affect rights or obligations accrued or owed before the effective date of the termination notice.
- (b) TERMINATION FOR NONAPPROPRIATION OR REDUCTION OF FUNDS OR CHANGES IN LAW. Upon twenty (20) calendar days prior written notice, Purchaser may suspend or terminate this Purchase Order, in whole or in part at the sole discretion of Purchaser, if Purchaser reasonably determines that: (i) a change in Federal or State legislation or applicable laws materially affects the ability of either party to perform under the terms of this Purchase Order; or (ii) that a change in available funds affects Purchaser's ability to pay under this Purchase Order. A change of available funds as used in this section includes, but is not limited to, a change in Federal or State funding, whether as a result of a legislative act or by order of the President or the Governor. If a written notice is delivered under this provision, Purchaser shall reimburse Supplier for Goods properly ordered and/or Services properly performed until the effective date of said notice. This provision states the sole and exclusive obligation and liability of Purchaser in the event of termination for nonappropriation or reduction of funds or changes in law.

- (c) TERMINATION FOR PUBLIC CONVENIENCE. Upon sixty (60) calendar days prior written notice, Purchaser may terminate this Purchase Order for public convenience. If a written notice is delivered under this provision, Purchaser shall reimburse Supplier for Goods properly ordered and/or Services properly performed until the effective date of said notice. The provision states the sole and exclusive obligation and liability of Purchaser in the event of termination for public convenience.

- (b) REMEDIES. Upon default of Supplier, Purchaser may issue a written notice of default providing a fifteen (15) calendar day period in which Supplier shall have an opportunity to cure. Time allowed for cure shall not diminish or eliminate Supplier's liability for damages. If the default remains after Supplier has been provided the opportunity to cure, Purchaser may do one or more of the following: (i) exercise any remedy provided by law or equity; (ii) terminate this Purchase Order; (iii) impose liquidated damages, if liquidated damages are listed in this Purchase Order; (iv) propose that Supplier be debarred from receiving future contracts from Purchaser or the State of Washington; or (v) demand a full refund of any payment that Purchaser has made to Supplier under this Purchase Order for Goods or Services that do not conform to this Purchase Order.
- (c) LIMITATION OF DAMAGES. Neither party shall be liable to the other for incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, including loss of profits or loss of revenue; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section shall in any way exclude or limit: (i) a party's liability for all damages arising out of that party's intentional acts or omissions; (ii) the operation of any Goods or Services warranty provided in this Purchase Order; (iii) any liability for liquidated damages that are set out in this Purchase Order; or (iv) damages subject to the Intellectual Property Indemnity section of this Purchase Order. Any limitation of either party's obligations under this Purchase Order, by delivery slips or other documentation is void.

25. DISPUTE RESOLUTION. The parties shall cooperate to resolve any dispute pertaining to this Purchase Order efficiently, as timely as practicable, and at the lowest possible level with authority to resolve such dispute. If, however, a dispute persists and cannot be resolved, it may be escalated within each organization. In such situation, upon notice by either party, each party, within five (5) business days shall reduce its description of the dispute to writing and deliver it to the other party. The receiving party then shall have three (3) business days to review and respond in writing. In the event that the parties cannot then agree on a resolution of the dispute, the parties shall schedule a conference between senior managers of each organization to attempt to resolve the dispute. In the event the parties cannot agree, either party may resort to court to resolve the dispute.
